

Erehwon Farm 2009 Fall Shares

Those of you who are wondering what you will do for fresh produce once the regular season is over—here is your answer: the Erehwon Farm Fall CSA.

Seven weeks of wonderful fall produce such as winter squash, pie pumpkins, carrots, radishes, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, kale, spinach, Swiss chard, lettuce, parsnips, tatsoi, leeks, rutabaga, beets, spicy mix, and various Asian greens. Share sizes will be comparable to what you were receiving in June. Also, new in the fall season will be fresh eggs. Twice during the season you will receive a dozen farm fresh eggs from the Ogle Family Farm in Sugar Grove. If you've never had farm fresh eggs, you are in for a treat—wonderful fluffy texture with dark yellow or orange yolks and shells in shades of brown, white, and even green. Also, at least twice during the season you will receive a loaf of Grandma Beth's home baked bread using local ingredients (honey, eggs, whole grain flours, organic milk) and no sugar. We are currently trying to procure some local honey for you once during the season as well, but this isn't firmed up yet.

Starts the week of October 25, every week excepting the week of Thanksgiving, through the week of December 13. (seven boxes in all).

Pick-up will be Thursdays and Saturdays at Inglenook Pantry, 11 N. 5th St., in Geneva. If you haven't been to Inglenook Pantry, it is a delightful place. Connie makes wonderful quiches with our chard and broccoli and Mark makes fabulous vegetable soups and pickled red cabbage. Saturday mornings we will also be participating in the Geneva Winter Market held at Inglenook—but more about that later.

We have a limited number of shares available, so sign up now to reserve your spot. Subscriptions are limited to current CSA subscribers until October 01, but if you are interested, we will be happy to put you on a waiting list.
