

Urgent! When the Farmers' Markets end, you don't have to settle for produce grown way across the country.

Announcing Erehwon Farm's Fall Vegetable Shares Program!

Act Fast! Shares limited to first 30 signups!

What you get:

- Each member receives a weekly $\frac{3}{4}$ bushel box of seasonal produce * without chemical pesticides, herbicides and fertilizers
- Share price reflects discount from Farmers' Market pricing
- Members receive a 20% discount from the Erehwon stall at the Geneva Winter Farmers Market
- Local free-range eggs and honey will be included if available
- Program starts October 25 and runs 7 weeks through December 15
- A weekly newsletter with produce descriptions, produce handling tips and recipes
- Members may come to the farm and cut herbs and U-Pick, weather permitting
- Members may bring compostable yard waste to the farm
- Members may take home a bag of finished compost to apply to their home garden

*In the past we have distributed these fall produce items: winter squash, pumpkins, carrots, radishes, broccoli, cabbage, kale, spinach, Swiss chard, lettuce, tatsoi, beets, Farmer Tim's health salad mix, potatoes, turnips, Jerusalem artichokes, bok choy, endive, cilantro, onions, hoophouse tomatoes, hot peppers, sugar peas, cucumbers, summer squash, rutabagas, dill, oregano, thyme, chives, eggplant, cauliflower, brussels sprouts, garlic. Shares can be picked up in Geneva, Logan Square, Wheaton, and Elgin drop-off sites. All produce grown chemically free at our farm near Geneva.

Share distributed 9/20/2010

Visitors welcome at the farm. Call Tim at 630-485-9963 to make sure he's on site to show you around.
